Notice to Exhibitors

- Junior Earthdog is open to all dogs.
- Novice Earthdog is open to all dogs.
- Any dog, otherwise eligible, may enter Introduction to Quarry (IQ), at the owner's discretion. IQ is a nonregular (practice) class. Dogs do not have to pass IQ to be entered in any of the other classes.
- Bitches in season are not eligible to enter Earthdog Tests. There will be no refund of any entry fee in this case.
- EXHIBITORS should follow their veterinarian's recommendations to assure their dogs are free of internal and external parasites, any communicable diseases, and have appropriate vaccinations.

Once five Double Qualifications have been awarded, the owner submits the completed form to the AKC along with a title recording fee of $30. Upon verification, the AKC issues a title certificate to the owner, and the dog shall be identified as an Endurance Earthdog by the suffix title EE. Ensure keep a copy of the completed form for your records.

Request for Volunteers!

Do you want a FREE LUNCH for yourself or a guest you're bringing with you? Here's how to get one!

*STCGW Club members are not eligible for free lunch – but they're more than welcome to come volunteer for their club!

In an effort to speed up and better organize the process for this year's event, we're asking for volunteers to assist us. If you are interested, the areas/tasks where we need volunteers are:

At each testing location (IQ, Novice, Junior, Master and Senior) we need:

A Judge's Assistant. Also known as "Rat Wrangler," this position entails doing things the judge asks, staying close and helping the judge ensure the trial is run smoothly. This individual will take care of the rats when they're not in the tunnels.

A Gate Keeper. This individual remains at the entry gate or release point to inform entrants when to approach the tunnels with their dogs.

Other available positions:

Runner – This individual needs to be available to go between the tunnel sites and Mary's garage to assist in getting people to/from the tunnel areas, and to run any errands the judges may need. Would like to have two per event (3 events). Can be the same two people the entire two days.

Ribbons/General Announcements – This individual will assist Neal in preparing ribbons after the judges have completed their trial packets and announcing when the judge is ready to present awards. Could be required to "chase down" entrants to ensure they're ready for when the trial start.

Lunch Manager – This individual is responsible for ensuring lunch items are appropriately arranged, including plates, napkins, utensils, side dishes, etc. Also responsible for collecting lunch tickets and/or cash from entrants.

Volunteers are expected to remain at their assigned location for the duration of the trial/event. Judges will provide FREE lunch tickets to their volunteers following the trial.
